

BUREAU OF PUBLIC PROCUREMENT

Press Release

The Bureau of Public Procurement gets Anti-corruption and Transparency Unit (ACTU).

The Director General Bureau of Public Procurement (DG, BPP), Mamman Ahmadu FNIQS have challenged the newly inaugurated members of the Anti-corruption and Transparency unit (ACTU) in the Bureau, to establish the basis of their grading, and work towards achieving results in the procurement sector.

L-R: Director-General, BPP, Mamman Ahmadu, FNIQS and the Representative of the ICPC Chairman and Director, System Study and Review Department, ICPC, Mr. Abbia Udofia during the Inauguration of ACTU members in BPP

The DG made this known while addressing the newly inaugurated members of ACTU in the Bureau, which took place recently in the conference room of the BPP, in Abuja.

R-L: Director, Energy Infrastructure, Babatunde Kuye and his Administration counterpart, Mr. Babagana Bukar during the Inauguration of ACTU members in BPP

The DG advised them to “look at the virtues of our forefathers and work with that spirit which made them to succeed and led to a solid foundation of the country”. Stating that, when there is no greed, there will be no corruption. He pledged the support of the management to enable the ACTU unit succeed.

On his part, the Chairman of the Independent Corrupt Practices and other Related Offences Commission (ICPC), Bolaji Owasanoye, Senior Advocate of Nigeria (SAN), represented by Mr. Abbia Udofia, Director, System Study and Review Department, ICPC, said, the creation of ACTU in MDA's was initiated by ICPC, in collaboration with the Office of the Head of the Civil Service of the Federation (OHCSF) approved by the Federal Executive Council in 2001. The Chairman said that, ACTU is an in-house check mechanism in MDA's against corrupt and unethical practices.

L-R: Director, Special Procurement, Engr. E.J. Obasi, FNSE, Director, Civil Infrastructure, Engr. Nasir M. Bello, MNSE, and Director, Research, Training and Strategic Planning, Mr. Adebowale Adedokun during the Inauguration of ACTU members in BPP

He said, BPP and ICPC have collaborated in several programs of National importance and revival. Stressing that, ACTU in BPP will be successful; pointing out that, it will be an additional veritable tool in the achievement of the Bureau's vision. He advised the members to live above board in the discharge of their responsibilities.

L-R: Members of Staff, ICPC/BPP, Front-Row; Mrs. Ophelia Onyeka, Mr. Nwaobilor Emmanuel and Barr. Alice Bolarinwa, Back Row; some staff of the Bureau during the Inauguration of ACTU members in BPP

The ACTU Chairman in BPP, Mr. Amagbakhen Roland, Assistant Director, Accounts, accepted the responsibility to carry out the work, he seeks cooperation of all to enable them succeed.